Objective of KCJS's Japanese Program

The objective of KCJS's Japanese Program is to enhance the student's communicative competence and to enable interactions with others in Japanese. In particular, a KCJS student will come to:

1. Understand the intentions of others when Japanese is spoken;
2. Understand the intentions of others when written materials of various genres and media are presented;
3. Control the use of Japanese expressions, both spoken and written, in order to fit the socio-cultural settings and purposes of communication;
4. Expand the modes of communication used to include such genres as formal presentations, negotiations, projects, the organization of events, and their follow-up.

Course Description

The 4th-year Japanese program is designed for those who have completed at least three years of college-level Japanese or the equivalent (around 450 hours of Japanese study). The students who want to take this course are expected to be at the Intermediate-High level or above of the ACTFL \(American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages\) Proficiency Guidelines at the beginning of the course.

For a more detailed description, please follow the links provided below:
ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines Intermediate: Speaking | Writing | Listening | Reading
(see the section of "INTERMEDIATE HIGH")

Please note that the language levels used at KCJS (i.e. 2nd-year, 3rd-year, etc.) may not exactly match those used at your home institution. The placement test, however, will help ensure that you are enrolled in a class that will improve your skills most effectively.

In addition to the classroom activities, students will have the opportunity to pursue an individualized project that is based on their own interest. They will deliver a presentation on their project at the end of the program.

Course Objectives

Our goals are for students to: 1) learn how to study Japanese effectively to become an independent learner for oriented toward life-long language learning; and 2) further develop competence in interpersonal, interpretive, and presentational modes of communication and to expand their overall abilities to function effectively in Japanese in various socio-cultural settings. To this end, we will assist students to:

1. learn effective study methods,
2. establish good study habits,
3. acquire a command of advanced-level grammar in order to use them accurately and more effectively,
4. expand vocabulary, idiomatic expressions and kanji including kango 漢語 vocabulary and idiomatic expressions,
5. be able to participate in discussions on a wide range of topics,
6. be able to narrate and describe people, places, and events effectively and at length.

Course Policy

General

1. In the event of illness or other absence, please notify your language instructor, the director, or the office staff as soon as possible via e-mail.
2. Students are expected to abide by the “Terms of Participation” they signed during the admissions process for KCJS, as well as the code of Academic Conduct outlined in Columbia University’s General Handbook

(<http://www.college.columbia.edu/ccschonorcode>) and your KCJS Handbook.

3. Students with disability paperwork should contact their instructors as soon as possible at the beginning of the term in order to discuss accommodations.
4. You are strongly encouraged to communicate with each other in Japanese in the Fusokan.
5. No consuming food in class.
6. Use formal speech (です/ます) style when talking to faculty and staff members.
7. Email sent after 5pm Monday through Thursday will NOT be answered until the following morning. Emails sent after 5pm on Friday as well as Saturday and Sunday will not be answered until Monday morning.

Attendance/Participation

1. Daily attendance is mandatory. NO make-up classes will be given.
2. If you are more than 5 minutes absent from class, 1 will be deducted from your participation score.
3. If you are more than 20 minutes absent from class, it will be treated as one class absence.
4. At the end of the semester, your lowest four performance scores, regardless of reason (e.g., illness, poor performance) will be dropped from your record when your grade is calculated.
5. From the fifth class absence, you will receive a zero for each class missed, including 1st and 2nd sessions. [Note that this refers to class absences, not days absent. If you are absent for a whole day, it will be counted as two zeroes.]
6. If you fail to notify your language instructor, the director, or the office staff, about your absence prior to or on the day of your absence, then your score for that day will NOT be dropped at the end of the semester and it will remain as zero.
7. If you experience an extended illness or if unforeseen circumstances arise (e.g., return to your country for the funeral of a relative), such that you miss five or more Japanese language classes (not days), please write an explanation of the situation and submit it to the director with a copy to your language instructor for consideration with respect to your final grade.
8. Students who test positive for COVID must inform the Resident Director and isolate in place in program housing.
9. If you test positive for COVID, your absences will not be counted towards your final grade. Consult with your instructor about missing assignments, quizzes, tests, etc.

Quizzes & Review Tests

1. If you are not present when the quiz is distributed, you will not be allowed to take the quiz.
2. The lowest two quiz grades will be dropped from the final score at the end of the semester.
3. You will not be allowed to make up or reschedule quizzes under any circumstances.
4. You may be permitted to make up review tests at the discretion of the instructor, except for personal reasons.

Homework

1. All assignments must be handed in on time, i.e. at the beginning of the class.
2. Work will be considered one day late if it is turned in after the class on the assigned day.
3. If an assignment is turned in late, 10% will be deducted from the grade for every day it is late.
4. Homework will not receive any grade beyond three days after the due date.
5. Outstanding homework assigned during your absence must be submitted no later than the second day of your return to class. A 10% grade penalty will be applied to the outstanding assignment after the third day of your return to class. Completed homework assigned during your absence will not be accepted beyond the fourth day of your return to class.
6. All homework must be done INDIVIDUALLY. If it is discovered that a student has done any action against the Columbia University's Honor Code, they will be penalized accordingly. <http://www.college.columbia.edu/ccschonorcode>

7. Homework assignments that require self-corrections will be returned for 'redoing'. Unless it is redone correctly within two days, the original grade you received for that work will remain the same.
8. Under no circumstances will students be allowed to submit redo homework after the last day of class.
9. Homework must be written in pencil.

Grading Scale for Preparation, Participation, Attendance

Grading Scale for Individual Projects

10	You submitted a final individual project that demonstrates a high level of preparation and achievement. You engaged fully in independent consultations, making strong use of new vocabulary and phrases with accurate articulation. Your grammar was strong and you contributed culturally appropriate explanations, assessments, and arguments. You handled questions from the instructors well, providing responses that encourage smooth communication.
8	A reasonably high level of accomplishment was demonstrated in your final submission. However, there were some insufficiencies in your accuracy, cultural appropriateness, and/or your ability to make full use of new vocabulary and phrases. The work was such that the instructor needed to think quite hard to comprehend your main ideas. You might have repeated mistakes that were addressed in the pasts. You attended independent consultations enthusiastically, however, there remained weaknesses in vocabulary, grammar, and cultural appropriateness. As a result, the instructor may have experienced difficulty ascertaining your opinion accurately, therefore placing a burden on the former to ensure conversations progress.
6	Thorough preparation on your individual project was not apparent. Participation in individual consultations was passive. There was either a lack of sufficient understanding or there were misunderstandings about the topic. As a result, you were not able to understand the questions or ideas put forth by the instructor. Conversation did not progress smoothly and there was a great burden on the instructor to ensure conversations continued.

5	There was clearly a lack of preparation on your individual project. You attended independent consultations, however, you did not develop a project sufficiently.

Columbia University Statement on Academic Integrity

The intellectual venture in which we are all engaged requires of faculty and students alike the highest level of personal and academic integrity. As members of an academic community, each one of us bears the responsibility to participate in scholarly discourse and research in a manner characterized by intellectual honesty and scholarly integrity.

Scholarship, by its very nature, is an iterative process, with ideas and insights building one upon the other. Collaborative scholarship requires the study of other scholars' work, the free discussion of such work, and the explicit acknowledgement of those ideas in any work that inform our own. This exchange of ideas relies upon a mutual trust that sources, opinions, facts, and insights will be properly noted and carefully credited.

In practical terms, this means that, as students, you must be responsible for the full citations of others' ideas in all of your research papers and projects; you must be scrupulously honest when taking your examinations; you must always submit your own work and not that of another student, scholar, or internet agent.

Any breach of this intellectual responsibility is a breach of faith with the rest of our academic community. It undermines our shared intellectual culture, and it cannot be tolerated. Students failing to meet these responsibilities should anticipate being asked to leave Columbia.

Students are expected to do their own work on all tests and assignments for this class and act in accordance with the Faculty Statement on Academic Integrity and Honor Code established by the students of Columbia College and the School of General Studies. Because any academic integrity violation undermines our intellectual community, students found to have cheated, plagiarized, or committed any other act of academic dishonesty can expect an automatic F on the assignment and may be referred to the Dean's Discipline process. It is students' responsibility to ensure their work maintains the standards expected and should you have any questions or concerns regarding your work, you can ask the instructor and refer to the Columbia University Undergraduate Guide to Academic Integrity.

Plagiarism

The use of words, phrases, or ideas that do not belong to the student, without properly citing or acknowledging the source, is prohibited. This may include, but is not limited to, copying computer code for the purposes of completing assignments for submission.

To avoid committing plagiarism, cite all sources properly.

現在、「だわ」「のよ」といった「女言葉」と認識されている言葉づかいの起源は、明治時代の女学生の話し言葉だった。しかし、当時は正しい日本語とは考えられていず「良妻賢母には似合わない」「下品で乱れた言葉」だと、強く非難されていた。

女言葉がきちんとした日本語と考えられるようになったのは、朝鮮半島や台湾などの植民地でとられた同化政策の中でのことだった。「女と男で違う言葉を使う」のが日本語のすばらしさであるとされ、多様な言葉づかいの一部だけを「女言葉として語る」ことで、女言葉という概念が生み出されたのだ。

Grade

Based on the relative weights indicated on the previous section, a composite numerical grade will be computed, to which a letter grade will be assigned as follows:

A	100 - 94	B	86.9 - 83	C	76.9 - 73	D	66.9 - 63
A-	93.9 - 90	B-	82.9 - 80	C-	72.9 - 70	D-	62.9 - 60
B+	89.9 - 87	C+	79.9 - 77	D+	69.9 - 67	F	59.9 -

Please note that we do not round number when we determine your final grade. To earn the below letter grades your final numerical grade must fall within the given ranges.

Grade Report

Your grade is updated in the online grade book. You should access the grade book regularly to gauge your progress. If you find an error, it is your responsibility to let the instructor know immediately so that necessary adjustments are made in a timely manner.

To Ensure a Successful Working Relationship:

In our course, there will be many opportunities to discuss ideas in small groups. To support a productive, respectful, and learning-focused discussion, I ask that you participate with the following classroom norms, which we will review and add to together as a class:

- Listen respectfully. Comments that you make (whether asking for clarification, sharing critiques, or expanding on a point) should reflect that you have paid attention to the previous speakers' comments.
- Be open to changing your perspectives based on what you learn from others.
- Understand that we are bound to make mistakes in this space, as anyone does when approaching complex tasks or learning new skills. Strive to see your mistakes and others' as valuable elements of the learning process.

- Understand that your words have effects on others. Speak with care.
- Understand that others will come to these discussions with different experiences from yours. Be careful about assumptions and generalizations you make based only on your own experience.
- Understand that there are different approaches to solving problems. If you are uncertain about someone else's approach, ask a question to explore areas of uncertainty.
- Differentiate between opinion--which everyone has--and informed knowledge, which comes from sustained experience, study, and practice. Hold your opinions lightly and with humility.

Language learning is a cumulative process that requires discipline and daily efforts. Missing even one class can create a gap affecting your entire subsequent study. COME TO EVERY CLASS! You are urged to bring ANY problem you have to the coordinating instructor's attention, no matter how minor you may think it is.
